

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

WASHINGTON, DC

GW Regulatory Studies Center

FEDERAL REGULATORY POLICY, PROCESS, AND ANALYSIS

October 3-4, 2012

Marvin Center 800 21st St, NW

Time	Speaker	Topic
Day 1 – Marvin Center Room 311
8:15 – 8:45		Registration & continental breakfast
8:45 – 10:15	Susan Dudley & Michael Fitzpatrick	Role of Regulation in the US Institutional framework, incentives & trends in regulation
10:15 – 10:30		Break
10:30 – 11:45	Susan Dudley	US Regulatory Principles & Procedures Legislative & executive requirements and procedures, incl. EOs 12866, 13563 & predecessors, Paperwork Reduction Act, Regulatory Flexibility Act
11:45 – 12:30	Lunch	Buffet
12:30 – 2:00	Art Fraas	Introduction to Regulatory Impact Analysis Circular A-4: Elements of a thorough regulatory impact analysis
2:00 – 3:15	Fraas & Dudley	Identifying Alternatives Role of markets, state and local governments, incentives
3:15 – 3:30		Break
3:30 – 5:00	Rick Belzer	Information Quality Act Requirements, experience, and how to ensure quality information
Day 2 – Marvin Center Room 403
8:30 – 10:00	George Gray	Risk analysis Risk assessment, management, and characterization Analytical requirements and challenges
10:00 – 10:15		Break
10:15 – 12:00	Joe Cordes	Measuring, quantifying and valuing benefits and costs - I
12:00 – 12:45	Lunch	Buffet
12:45 – 2:15	Randy Lutter	Measuring, quantifying and valuing benefits and costs – II Issues and challenges specific to analysis of regulatory impacts
2:15 – 2:30		Break
2:30 – 4:00	Lutter and Fitzpatrick	Emerging issues – Implementing E.O. 13563 Ex post evaluation of policies, ensuring scientific integrity, flexible approaches to regulation, etc.
4:00 – 5:00	Dudley + others	Wrap up Combining the elements, applications