The GW Regulatory Studies Center and the ABA Section of Administrative Law & Regulatory Practice are hosting a two-part series for congressional staff featuring an engaging and informative discussion on regulation led by regulatory experts Susan Dudley, Director of the GW Regulatory Studies Center, Paul Noe, Vice-President of Public Policy for the American Forest & Paper Association and Chair of the ABA Ad Law Rulemaking Committee, Amb. C. Boyden Gray, founding partner of Boyden Gray & Associates, and Shawne McGibbon, General Counsel for the Administrative Conference of the United States.

Part I (Sep. 28) will cover the basics of regulatory procedure and policy, reviewing the history of regulation and regulatory reform in the United States including key regulatory milestones and insights from past efforts at regulatory reform.

Part II (Oct. 5) will focus on regulatory practice and administrative law including key case law, as well as guiding statutes and their implementation (PRA, SBREFA, IQA etc.).

Each session will include time for Q&A and audience discussion.

This course is sponsored by U.S. Senate HSGAC Subcommittee on Regulatory Affairs and Federal Management Chairman James Lankford and Ranking Member Heidi Heitkamp.
